

What you need to know:

Not all items will be available to start with.

Not all libraries and regional systems have re-opened, so orders may not all be filled at this time.

Item delivery will be affected by closures and limited hours so delivery may be slower. Please be patient.

Items will need to be quarantined for 72 hours before being released.

Pick up will be by appointment only and you will be contacted by staff to set up a time.